Year 5 Anglo-Saxon Workshops

On Wednesday the 14th December, Year 5 hosted a range of Anglo-Saxon workshops for children of Stocks Green and Fosse Bank.

The activities were Anglo-Saxon dancing, butter making, biscuit making, an artefact trail, making clay brooches, Beowulf roleplay, farming and wool spinning.

Everyone had a great time and thoroughly enjoyed it! The children that came all learnt from our activities and left with smiles on their faces. Most of us were nervous because we were teaching people we didn't know but we gained our confidence and we had fun!

We are looking forward to showing the parents what we have done and celebrating our learning with them.

Stefan and Jack, Year 5.

Year 4 workshops top the charts!

Year 4 workshops are at the top of the charts.

The Year 4's worked hard with very little help to impress the Year 4 children at Stocks Green School with their Roman teaching talent.

The workshops included Roman mosaics, pottery, sword fighting, shield making, Empire map hunting, marching, food making and tasting as well as road and aqueduct construction.

In this final workshop, the children made Roman roads and aqueducts and they did an astonishing quiz, testing them on their knowledge of what they had learnt. The pupils gave the workshops a 5* rating and the Hildenborough Year 4's were very proud of themselves.

"What an incredible day!" they exclaimed.
